ASSOCIATION.

Proceedings of the Regular August Meeting-A Creditable Showing. At the regular annual meeting of the Knoxville Library and Reading Room Association Tuesday evening, Jan. 7, 1879, the following proceed ings were entered of record. J. W.

To the Knoxville Library Association, on behalf of the management for the year 1878, I submit the following report: Your directors assumed the duties of the office in January, 1878, succeeding a board whose administration had ties Falling of the Womb, Leucorrhosa been perhaps the most successful in the history of the organization. It Females are Subject; enriches the blood, had doubled the membership and inpurifies the secretions and strengthens creased the number of books by about No 3. For Kidney, Spine and Bladder affect the number of books, it was enabled to make by securing a donation of $360 from the East Tennessee Relief Association, a piece of good fortune which has no parallel in the history of its successor. But while our admiristration has not been illustrated by such decided progress, and while we confess that we have in many respects failen short of our duty, we are gratified to be able to report that the condition of the Association is comparatively prosperous and justifies strong hope for the future. At our last annual meeting our membership was one hundred and twenty-five; now it is one hundred and thirty-five.

At that time the number of books upon our shelves was 1,512-now it is 1,577, an increase during the year of anly slx1y-five. The number of volumes taken from the library in 1876, was 1,483-in 1877, 81 00 3,134 or 1 651 more than in '76 and in

Our librarian who is a very active and perhaps the most influential supporter of the institution, is an accurate and zealous statistician and from data supplied by him, we estimate the number of our visitors during the last year to be something more than 43,400. The newspapers and periodicals for which we regularly subscribe are as follows: New York Tribune, New York Herald, Courier-Journal, Cincinnati Commercial, Atlanta Constitution, Nashville American, Harper's Weekly, Leslie's Weekly, Harper's Bazar, The Atlantic, Harper's Monthly, ristown Gazette, Dandridge Watch 11 08 pm man, Jonesborough Journal, Cin-Arrive) at Knoxville 416 am cunnati Star, Athens Post, Chris. investment for 1878 has been made, and the selection of books, it seems, and Oliver Optic. The immediate and continuing popularity attained by them, and especially by the last mentioned, has perceptibly increased our income.

We have secured the services of a number of distinguished gentlemen for our winter course of lectures-and herstofore our lectures have been financially successful-and have been a source of pleasure and profit to the A-s sciation and the country. A contituance of the system is respectfully suggested to our successors.

In conclusion, we congratulate the Association upon the good work it is says a great write, and in the history of RARE doing and upon the prospect of in-Discoveries or the last half century, nothing creased prosperity and usefulness in sack. J. W. CALDWELL,

Rev. J. F. Spence, D. D., presided, and, after music by the orchestra, announced a declamation on " Winter," by John L. Atlee, of Athens. This was a good selection, well and forcibly delivered. Mr. Atlee prefaced his declamation with a few salutatory remarks of welcome to the audi-

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM ence, which were exceedingly appro priate and well received. His effort was followed by the reading of an essay, "The Athens of Yesterday and the Athens of To-day," by Harley C. Hitchcock, of South Salem, Ohio. Mr. Hitchcock was extremely happy in bis choice of a subject, and equally so in its treatment. His language was well chosen, chaste and often eloquent, and his delivery was excellent. Taken altogether we consider it one Caldwell, Secretary, reported as fol- of the best essays we have ever heard read on the rosirum of East Tennessee Wesleyan University. After a Cotton Yaroa song, a duet, by Messrs. H. C. Hitch-Corn. Cook and J. E. Deacon, the debate Song. ensued. The contestants, Lucius H. Floor, family. Massey, of Newport, and G. M. Callen, of Thorn Grove, both acquitted themselves admirably. Mr. Massey's speech was earnest, convincing and eloquent; while Mr Callen's argument was logical, and his reasoning keen and clear. A declamation by John H. McCailie, of Trundle's Cres-Roads, "Robert Emmett's Defense," came next. The bighest praise we can give Mr. McCallie is to say that he did full justice to this admirable selection. We have seldom seen closer attention paid by an audience to a speaker than was given during the delivery of this declamation. Mr. McCallie possesses many of the elements of an orator, which he would do well to cultivate.

After another stirring piece of mu sic by the orchestra, Douglas Caulkins, Knoxville, read the Society's month-"The Philomatheau." This number of the paper was filled with original matter of a high degree of literary excellence, and was read in a manner which made it especially interesting. The paper was a credit to the society and to its editor.

After a song, a solo by Miss E. J. Fisher, of Athens, rendered in her u-usl charming manner, R. J. Cooke, of New York, delivered an oration upon the subjet. "Woman, Man's Equal," This ora lon was an exceeds ingly able and eloquent effort. At its conclusion one of the ladies of Athens stepped upon the stage, and with a few appropriate remarks, thanking Mr. Cook for his gallant tribute to the female sex, presented to him, in behalf of the ladies of Athens, a boquet of beautiful flowers; which presentation and remarks were received with a perfect tempest of applause. After music by the orchestra, the audience was dismissed.

The exhibition was, throughout, a complete success, and one of the best we have ever witnes ed. New students are beginning to come in for the second term, which will open Monday, the 20th inst. Argus. A few Overcoats, at unprecedented Jos. T. MCTEER.

Announcements for 1879:

Among the attractions for the coming year are the following: "HAWORTH'S," a serial novel, by Mrs Frances Hodgson Burnet, author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's." The scene of Mrs Burnett's new novel is laid in Lancashire; the hero is a young inventor of American birth 'Haworth's" is the longest story Mrs Burnett has yet written. It will run through twelve numbers of the Monthly, beginning with November, 1878 and will be profusely
